February Member Meeting Guest Speaker 2024 Oregon Candidate For State Representative, 48th District, John Masterman

We have the privilege of welcoming guest speaker John Masterman, a republican running for State Representative in the 48th District for lunch at our regular February member meeting. Mr. Masterman is a small business owner and family man who currently serves

As a Clackamas County Precinct Committee Person. He will share with us his insights on public safety, the homeless crisis, economic growth, tolls, expanding Opportunities for Our Kids, and how he will be the voice for small business. Please in welcoming him to our meeting. You can find additional information about Mr. Masterman at his website at <https://www.voteforjohnmasterman.com/>.

December Year End Celebration and New Officer Installation

As we bid farewell to 2023 at our December member meeting we do so with a heartfelt thank you to all the volunteers, committee chairs, and elected officers who made a difficult transition year a big success. We took a moment to remind the club of their contributions and honor each of their efforts. We highlighted the fundraising team led by Vice President, Michelle Cassel with Wendy Young, Terri Ely, Margo Bachhuber, and Eddie Erwin for their planning and execution of the fashion show, the flower basket sale, and the pasta fundraiser all of which contributed to our successes in 2023. We also gave a called out to a very special member who is always there to lend a hand Randi Williams.

Next we turned to the journey ahead in 2024 as we installed our newly elected officers. They are President, Lisa Cassel, Vice President, Michelle, Cassel, 2nd Vice President, Navette Martin, Recording Secretary, Becky Bunting, Corresponding Secretary, Wendy Young, and Treasurer Joanna Harbour. It will be this boards vision and dedication that will be the backbone of our successes in 2024 and 2025. They cannot do this work alone and will be looking to the members of Mt. Hood Republican Women for wisdom and guidance as the executive boards door is always open for input and suggestions.

The 2023 executive board officially kicked off the planning for the upcoming year in October. While all the details are still taking shape we are focused on the election, creating avenues for membership growth, working on effective ways of impacting our community, and bringing educational and interesting guest speakers to our monthly meetings. The year end December social is an excellent way to celebrate the accomplishments of the last year and to start sharing ideas and begin getting inspired for the new year to come.

Oregon tolls: Major milestones ahead in 2024

In 2024, we will continue to work with our communities and regional partners to shape toll policies, rules, and project designs.

Currently, the I-205 Toll Project for the Abernethy Bridge and the Regional Mobility Pricing Project on I-5 and I-205 are in the federal environmental review phase where we analyze the benefits and effects of the toll projects. Meanwhile, we are also working to establish the toll systems necessary for toll collection and operations and continuing to work with the public to bring their ideas and priorities into the planning process. 2024 will bring more milestones for the Oregon Toll Program—and many opportunities for the public to weigh in along the way. LARS LARSON: CHANGING WORDS TO APPEASE SEX OFFENDERS

By Lars Larson, NW and national radio host, You have to give Northwest lawmakers this: they've made the region as criminal friendly as they can. Their latest efforts land on the lunatic fringe.
